News Digest.

The counsel of S. M. BOOTH yesterday applied to the Supreme Court for a writ of habeas corpus. The matter is in the hands of Judges DIXON and COLE, whose decision will be given this morning.

Among the passengers on board the wrecked steamer Hungarian, was a Mr. TAGG, of Milwaukee.

The Chicago Municipal election came off yesterday, and resulted in the triumph of the entire Republican ticket, by about 700 majority.

Rev. THOS. H. STOCKTON, of Philadelphia, has been elected Chaplain of the House of Representatives.

A new steamer exploded her boilers at Easton, Pa., yesterday, killing a number of persons.

The Richmond Enquirer on the New York Delegation to Charleston.

The Richmond Enquirer has a leader on the subject of admitting FERNANDO WOOD'S delegation at Charleston, in which it says:

> The admission of the Freesoil Cagger-Cassidy delegation even, upon equal terms with Mr. Wood, would constitute an unwarrantable concession to free-soil proclivities. The exclusion of Mr. Wood and the Hard delegation would be an abandonment of principle, a coalition with free-soilism, that would render the Democratic Convention a by-word and reproach among honest men. We tell the Democracy that the day for equivocation has passed. No double-faced platform, meaning squatter sovereignty at the North, and its reverse at the South, can again succeed. Mr Mason and Mr. Hunter, the Senators from Virginia, have months ago declared, from the floor of the Senate, that no man occupying Mr. Douglas' position upon territorial slavery could receive an "individual vote" in Virginia. And no paper has contradicted the declaration, or questioned its propriety.

This is the entertainment to which the DOUGLAS delegates from the Free States are respectfully invited by their Southern brethren. The Wisconsin delegation, like that from New York, is "stained" with "Free-Soilism." Some of them were active "Free Soilers" in the Presidential campaign of 1848, and voted for "VAN BUREN and ADAMS." More of them, we believe, dissented from the strong Free-Soil resolutions adopted by the Democratic State Convention and endorsed by the Democratic State Legislature. But all of them, no doubt, are ready to recant these and other heresies, upon the imperious demand of their Southern taskmasters.

TROUBLE IN WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA.—In some of the Western counties of Pennsylvania, the people are in a state of rebellion against the taxes laid to pay the interest on bonds issued to railroads. In Washington county, we see, the house of an individual was levied on by an officer, and advertised for sale; when the people held a meeting, passed strong anti-tax resolutions, and denounced, in advance, any man who should bid on the house. The day of sale came, and sure enough, though a crowd collected, there was no one to bid on the property, which was accordingly returned to its owner.

THE GERMANS IN PEORIA.—The German Republican Club of Peoria have adopted a sound platform, one plank of which is the following:

> Resolved, That although in the next Presidential canvass we will with cheerfulness aid in the election of any candidate who confesses these principles to be his own, yet we publicly proclaim our particular preference and sympathy for the Hon. WM. H. SEWARD, having recognized and fully believing that he is not only a true Republican, a wise statesman, and a true patriot, but also in fact a sincere friend to immigration, at the same time being convinced that no candidate would receive from the Germans, without regard to political party, more general support.

The Impalement of Douglas.

Special Dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Thursday, March 1.

When Mr. Douglas was driven to the wall and pinned there by Mr. Trumbull yesterday, he sought to excite Southern sympathy by the loudest professions of devotion to their interests. One declaration is worthy particular attention, and has excited much remark here:

"But, inasmuch as the power to introduce Slavery, notwithstanding the Mexican laws was conferred on the Territorial Legislatures under the compromise measures of 1850, the right to introduce it into Kansas, notwithstanding the Missouri restriction, was also proposed to be conferred, without expressly repealing the restriction. The legal effect was precisely the same."

Mr. Douglas has always heretofore denied in Illinois that the repeal of the Missouri Compromise either allowed or contemplated the introduction of Slavery into Kansas.—That was the defence for his instrumentality in violating that compact, which is now abandoned to conciliate support at Charleston. This double dealing convicts itself and will be denounced by both sections.

COUNTERFEITERS ARRESTED.—One Rafenburgh, said to be the individual at whom Lu. Collur discharged a revolver four several times without inflicting a serious wound, was arrested at Hortonville, his place of residence, by Under-Sheriff McGrath, the great Rogue Catcher of Outagamie, brought up for examination on Wednesday before Justice Aiken, and committed to jail for want of bail, for uttering counterfeit bills on the Central Bank of New York. Mr. Charles Pfenning started the officer on his track, and after a few days the prisoner was arrested at home. We understand an arrest of parties implicated has been made at Oshkosh, and another at Hortonville. It is evident that there is an organization of passers of counterfeit money extending to the Eastern cities from the fact that the same kind of bills made their appearance in New York but a few days before they were visible here.—Appleton Crescent 3d.

BURNING OF MR. ROBINSON'S HOUSE.—We last week published a notice of the destruction, by fire, of John Robinson's house in the town of Kossuth. We have since seen Mr. R., who confirms the statement and informs us that one hundred and twenty-five bushels of oats, and fifty bushels of seed potatoes, stored in a place adjoining the house, were also burned. His own loss is about three hundred dollars. A hired man in the employ of Mr. Robinson lost a new suit of clothes, and thirty-five dollars which were deposited in the pockets.—Manitowoc Trib.

ON MONDAY LAST, a livery stable keeper, from Hudson, passed through our town, having in custody a horse thief. The thief hired a horse and buggy at Hudson, and after being absent a day or two, the owner's suspicions were aroused and he determined to follow him. He tracked him through Minnesota as far as Winona, then crossed the river and succeeded in capturing the rascal in Richland county. From a book he had in his possession, he was evidently bound for Chicago, where he had associates.—Eau Claire Free Press, 1st.

THE GALE AT LA CROSSE.—The wind blew a smart gale from the South on Saturday, stirring up a big dust, and tearing things generally. The roof on the corner building west of the Augusta House, got a lively hoist, and was landed in the street. A long strip of sidewalk on State and Second streets, turned a handsome somerset. Blinds, fences, windows and small out houses got considerably riddled, but we hear of no serious damage.—Union & Democrat.

THE CITY.

ARISTOTLE was not an American.

We have good authority for this, but it is sufficient proof that he said—men should not marry until they are thirty-seven. Americans are not Aristotleans. They commit marriage from the time of puberty to the age of twenty-five. After this they seldom exhibit the weakness—rich Cubans and Members of Congress being exceptions. By the way, would it not be a definite distinction to call man a marrying animal? It is true there are some men who do not marry; but what of that? Man has been called a reasoning animal, yet we know several who never reason at all; whereas, it is indisputable that all men would marry if they could.

But we wish to "come at" another fact, which may be set down among the causes assignable for this matrimonial tendency.—We avow that it is our solemn belief that the dry goods stores are chiefly instrumental in bringing this thing about. A splendid display is made of material which strikes the eye. The man passes and re-passes it, and feels that it is gorgeous, magnificent; but something with which he has nothing to do. Muslin awakens emotions, the rustle of brocade tells him of some unattained object in life. He admires, covets, and then acquires. Is this a foolish doctrine? We think not.—Acquisiton is the ruling passion now-a-days, and we can only tremble for such men as J. L. DAVIS, when we think of what they will have to answer for. The respectable old gentleman who desires to redeem his fast son, and takes him every pleasant day to look in at DAVIS' window, has more wisdom than the world gives him credit for. We shall publish a paragraph about the young man before long—it will not be far from the "Deaths." Then will "Heaven open to his view." Silks and satins will move at his command. He will look out upon a boundless sea of gauze and happiness; and be monarch of all he surveys.

But before the year is out, he may think better of the precept of Aristotle, and wish he had waited until he was thirty-seven.—We say he may. We see no absolute necessity of the thing; but when he has to keep a keg of Sands's ale in the house, and tries to get acquainted with a good physician, he will have arrived at the conclusion that Providence never intended him to live for nothing.

We believe in marrying, we are ultra in our opinions—not quite so ultra as BRIGHAM YOUNG, it is true—but we believe in wedlock, and our advice is—marry. Bachelor's hearts, at the best, are but deserted temples, in which all sorts of misanthropic fancies, like evil birds, hold sway. Everything is deserted, disordered, and nothing but woman's love can ever furnish the place, nothing but her smiles can ever illumine it. Go to thou young man! Marry and go to DAVIS.

PROMISCUOUS PITCHING IN.—Has the locale of the Free Democrat got a zealous fever and ague? Judging from the quiver of his mind he is troubled with a rush of arro-gance to the head. We have heard of a man knocking his head agains a WALL before, but it never occurred to us that there might be "anything in it."

Like all new hands at the bellows, it seems our Squibob is determined to create a breeze. He pitches into the Common Council; (we don't blame him for that,) he pitches into "Pizarro;" (that is the height of another kind of arro-gance,) he pitches into CALEB WALL, and misquotes a couplet at him; (the height of cruelty.)

Now, as to the Common Council, we distinctly remember, at the last meeting of the Board of Aldermen, hearing them regret the very thing Squibob now regrets, in imitation; and they passed a resolution appointing a standing Auditing Committee to examine carefully all the bills presented to the Common Council. In view of this resolution being concurred in by the Board of Councilors, Squibob would do well to "hold his horses."

About CALEB WALL, we would only say to our trans-river cotemporary, that the gentleman is quite extensively known on this side the river, and those who know him report him "all right on the goose. (We commend the phraze to our brother over the water.) CALEB, if not brilliant is always himself, that is, he never depends on PIZARRO. He always pays for his advertising, we are told; and we never before heard of any one's objecting to it.

We are of opinion that Squibob is troubled with a voracious appetite, and goes about seeking whom he may devour. CALEB WALL will prove too much for the stomach of the fueilletonist, who, if he keeps on at the present terrible rate, will die of surfeit, before the illustrious auctioneer can pronounce the professional obituary, of "going, going, gone!"

FIRE DEPARTMENT ELECTION.—The election for Chief and Assistant Engineers of our Milwaukee Fire Department comes off on Monday week. There are two candidates for the first office, THOMAS H. EVISTON, the present Chief, and O. M. HOFFORD, Foreman of Engine Co. No. 3.

The following ticket for Assistant Engineers, agreed upon by a large number of Firemen has been handed us for publication:

First Assistant.—J. H. BURNING, of Co. No. 2.

Second Assistant.—L. N. DEWEY, of Co. No. 3.

Third Assistant.—JAMES M. SMITH, or PHIL. DAILY, of Co. No. 4.

These are all old and experienced Firemen, and would render the Chief essential service and command the respect and confidence of the entire Department.

MUNICIPAL COURT, March 6th.—Sylvester Whipple, disorderly; penalty and costs $2.42. Paid.

George Giles, assault and battery; fine and costs, $6.70. Paid.

Frederick Rose, disorderly; fine and costs, $6.00 or 5 days in jail.

Patrick Flynn, larceny of coat valued at $5; sentenced to 15 days in jail.

M. G——, assault and battery; fine and costs, $4.00 Paid.

Gottlieb Reiz, assault and battery; fine and costs $5.54. Paid.

James Kennedy and Jerry Toombs, larceny of twelve rat traps, valued at $7; Kennedy discharged; Toombs convicted and sentence suspended until March 7th, at 9 A. M.

WE COUNTED, yesterday morning, seventeen cows and four horses grazing on Wisconsin between Van Buren and Cass Streets. Did we say grazing? Well, let that pass. They were doing their best. That remarkable saying of somebody's that this is a "free country," is fully exemplified by the very beasts of the field.

FOR THE NORTH SHORE.—The propeller Cuyahoga will leave here at 8 o'clock this evening, for Two Rivers, touching at Port Washington, Sheboygan and Manitowoc.—She will sail from Dousman's Dock, foot of Erie street. For passage apply to GRIFFIN & Co., foot of East Water street.

THE REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING of the Young Men's Christian Association took place last evening at their rooms, in BOWMAN'S Block. The attendance was good, and the exercises profitable.

Letter from Charles Jewett.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

FOND DU LAC, March 5th, 1860.

MR. EDITOR:—An article from the La Crosse Union, on moderate drinking, with which I find my name associated, occupied a place in the Sentinel of the 3d inst., and as I sincerely believe it calculated to exert a mischievous influence, appearing as it does without any editorial dissent in the columns of one of the most influential papers of this State, I beg leave to reply through the same medium. We are told in the article that "our total abstinence American women are sadly degenerating" and that "German women drink beer and are as robust as any women in the world." Now a partial statement, even of an unquestionable truth, may often mislead as totally as a statement in which no truth is found. That American women of the present generation, are less robust than their great grandmothers is undoubtedly true, but it by no means follows that abstinence from the use of intoxicating drinks is the cause of that degeneracy. On the contrary, the most robust of our women are found where there is the least drinking, in the rural districts, while the most infirm are found where private and social drinking is most prevalent, in the cities.

Nowhere on earth, either with bipeds or quadrupeds, male or female, can physical degeneracy be properly attributed to water drinking. The conditions of health in all climates are a sufficient amount of proper food—a pure atmosphere, pure water as a drink, regular and sufficient exercise in the open air, cleanliness, proper protection from the extremes of heat and cold, sufficient sleep, cheerfulness, and the proper and natural exercise of their social interests. How rarely all these conditions are complied with by American women—let the observation of every one declare. Close rooms, with a consequent vitiated atmosphere, thin shoes, dresses all too thin for the season, when they walk abroad in winter, late hours, fruit-cake and strong coffee at evening parties, the constant and crushing restraints of over-strained refinement, and pleasures removed as far as possible from nature and simplicity, with quite too little muscular exercise, these are the causes of physical degeneracy with our American women, and not their abstinence from fermented liquors the active and coveted element in all which is alcohol, classed among poisons by all writers on toxicology. German women comply more perfectly with the conditions of health above enumerated, than American ladies, and consequently are more robust. The substitution of pure water for lager beer, which is the prime agent of disease and moral degeneracy among our German population, would add materially to their health, and vastly increase among them intelligence and pecuniary independence, as well as morality and domestic happiness. The Indians of Wisconsin were healthy before they knew the white man, or his fatal arts. Was their health attributable to the beer or wine they drank?

The editor of the Union, in an article which found place in your columns, informs us that "Queen Victoria has raised eight or ten babies and drinks beer." I will add another unquestionable fact: Many American queens, who are water drinkers, have raised a dozen babies, or more, each. If an inference favorable to beer is to be drawn from fact No. 1, what inference shall be drawn from fact No. 2?

The following statement in the article I am commenting on, is made in the style and language and smacks of the spirit of the beer or liquor shop:

> "The most ridiculous thing of our time is to hear little, sallow, "dried up" men and women making an immense blow about the vices and indulgencies of the community, when one good, rolicking fast-liver, could clean out a regiment of them in ten minutes."

By the "little, sallow, 'dried up' men and women," undoubtedly is meant those who practice and advocate total abstinence. I am one of the number, and if the writer of that paragraph fancies he can secure any laurels by a trial of physical strength, I will accommodate him with the opportunity to win in that line when next I shall visit La Crosse. Select your "rolicking fast-liver" champion, thou Union man!—not exceeding one hundred and seventy-five pounds in weight—and let him show his power, not by the brutal sport of "mauling mugs," but by lifting heavy weights from the earth; and I will match him with a tee-totaler (of a weight not above that named,) who will lift his load with your champion on the top of it, Dr. WINSHIP of Boston.

Think you, friend Union, that the thousands of total abstainers, who fill the ranks of our Lodges of Good Templars, Sons of Temperance, and other kindred organizations, are inferior to their beer or wine drinking neighbors in health or viger. Why, man, the son of Manoah, known in his time by the name of Sampson, was a tee-totaler from his birth to his death, and yet, if I recollect a scrap of history, found in the Book of Judges, of the Sacred Record, he "cleaned out," in the elegant phraze of the Union, a regiment of the "fast livers" of Lehi with a very indifferent weapon, and then quenched his thirst and refreshed himself with a draught received from the hand of the All-Wise God, which was neither brandy, whiskey, or lager beer. Did Infinite Wisdom make a mistake in that case and fail to produce the best article to quench thirst and restore exhausted nature?

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, March 6—9 P. M.

Secretary Floyd appeared before the Harper's Ferry investigating committee, and testified to the receipt of an anonymous, letter, already published, warning him of a threatened attack on the government arsenal in Maryland. As there was none in that State, he thought the letter was a hoax, which detected itself.

Thaddeus Hyatt returned to the city with the Sergeant-at-Arms, and will appear at the bar of the Senate immediately.

Mr. Gurley, of the committee on printing, will present a bill to-morrow or Wednesday, directing that the printing and binding authorized by Congress the Executive and Judicial Departments, and the Court of Claims, be executed under charge of the superintendent of public printing, who shall be authorized to contract for the lease, erection or purchase of the necessary buildings, materials and machinery, for that purpose.

LATEST NEWS!

BY LAST NIGHT'S REPORT

Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, March 6—9 P. M.

HOUSE.—Mr. Schwartz asked, but failed to obtain leave to introduce a resolution instructing the Committee on Mileage to inquire into the expediency of restoring the compensation of Congressmen to what it was formerly, and into the expediency of regulating or reducing the mileage.

The House resumed the consideration of the bill reported last week, of which a synopsis has been given, for the protection of female passengers on board emigrant ships.

Mr. Jno. Cochrane offered two amendments which were agreed to, providing that a process be issued against the offenders in the English, French or German languages, and that suit can be brought within one year from the time of the arrival of any vessel in port. The bill was passed.

Mr. Jno. Cochrane from the Committee on Commerce, reported a bill for the simplification of the revenue laws. He said plain and radical changes had been made from the bill for a similar purpose reported at the last Congress.

All innovations were abandoned, and it was deemed best to confine the provisions of the bill to the existing laws on the subject, with such amendments only as were necessary to enforce them, and which are in accordance with the regulations of the Treasury Department for the last five years, without the sanction of law. This bill simply collates the laws now spread over a very large number of volumes.

It was of the utmost importance that the bill should be considered. The interests of commerce were dependent on it, because there was an imperfect code operating over the land.

The consideration of the bill was postponed until the 1st Tuesday in April.

Mr. Washburne, of Ill., from the committee on commerce, reported a joint resolution directing the unexpended balance of the appropriation of March, 1859, for repairing works and piers in order to secure the light house at Chicago, to be diverted to the repair and improvement of the harbor of that city. He said that the original appropriation was $87,000, of which sufficient sum had been expended for the light house, leaving $64,000 for the harbor. The resolution was passed.

Mr. Florence presented a memorial of the Insurance Companies, merchants and other citizens of Philadelphia, praying that Congress substitute steamers of light draught for the revenue service, in place of the present sailing schooners. Referred to committee on commerce.

The House prepared for the election of a chaplain. There were upwards of twenty persons nominated, including (by Mr. Briggs) the Jewish Rabbi, Dr. Rafael.

Mr. Branch nominated the whole clergy of the District of Columbia.

Mr. Patton nominated Rev. Mr. Lee, recently expelled from Kentucky.

After the roll was called many changed their names.

Mr. Briggs withdrew the name of Dr. Rafael.

Mr. Branch thought that all would agree that this scene should continue as short a time as possible. They now had an opportunity of knowing who was the strongest candidate. He now suggested that he should offer a resolution declaring a particular gentleman Chaplain. Let the other side offer an amendment proposing another candidate, then the previous question called and the contest could be settled by two votes.

Objections were made.

Whole number of votes, 190. Necessary to a choice, 96. Mr. Ball, Methodist, 41; Mr. Proctor, Methodist, 41; Thos. H. Stockton, 34; Mr. Waddell, 14; the remainder were scattering.

The House again voted. Mr. Stockton, of Philadelphia, was elected by fifteen majority.

Mr. Stalworth presented a memorial from Mobile, similar to the above mentioned one by Mr. Florence.

An invitation was received from the ladies of the Mount Vernon Association, inviting the members to accompany them on a visit to Mount Vernon to-morrow. Laid on the table.

On motion of Mr. Sherman the bill to reduce mileage from 40 to 20 cents per mile to be computed by a straight geographical line, was taken up.

Mr. Washburne, of Ill., ineffectually requested Mr. Sherman to give an amendment repealing all laws allowing any.

SENATE.—On motion of Mr. Mason it was ordered that Mr. Hyatt be remanded into the custody of the Sergeant-at-Arms, and be given till 2 o'clock on Friday next, to answer the questions propounded.

Mr. Wilson introduced a resolution instructing the Committee on Military to consider the expediency of transferring the control of the Indians from the Interior to the War Department.

Various reports and bills of no general interest were introduced.

The military academy bill was taken up, and on motion its reference to the committee on military affairs was reconsidered.

On motion of Mr. Brown the unfinished business of yesterday was postponed.

The resolutions relative to the territories were called up.

Mr. Brown addressed the Senate. He said when he introduced the resolutions that they would meet the approbation of all the Democrats in the Chamber, but on that point he had not been undeceived. He then proceeded to argue following proposition:

First—That slaves are property under the Constitution.

Second—That being property, the slaveholder has a right to take this slave to the common Territory.

Third—That this right existing, the slaveholder is entitled to protection in his property in the Territories.

He held, and here he differed from the majority of his party, that it was the duty of the Territorial Legislature to afford the slaveholder protection, and if that neglected its duty, then it was the duty of Congress to act. He was opposed to any compromise on this question, which sacrifices principle.

The subject was postponed.

Mr. Fitch called attention to a communication from the Regent of the Mount Vernon Association, inviting the members of both Houses of Congress to visit Mount Vernon to-morrow. He moved that the Senate meet to morrow at 12 o'clock, so as to adjourn early.

Agreed to.

Mr. Gwin moved to take up the military academy bill, so as to decide upon the amendment appropriating $1,300,000 to equip a regiment of mounted Texas volunteers.

Mr. Wigfall urged the necessity of immediate action.

Mr. Fessenden was opposed to immediate action, on the ground that they had not yet heard from the President or Secretary of War.

After further discussion, a message from the President was read, enclosing Gen. Houston's letter and a lengthy communication from the Secretary of War, communicating official reports on the difficulties on the Rio Grande.

The question was then taken on the motion to take up the bill, which was carried. Yeas 27, nayes 17.

Wisconsin Legislature.

MADISON, March 6—9 P. M.

ASSEMBLY.—Assembly met at 9 a. m.

Petitions, Remonstrances, &c.—From the citizens of Waupun against incorporating said village; for a special committee to inquire whether any relief can be granted to farm mortgagors in the Milwaukee & Superior Railroad.

After a long debate the time for paying interest on school and university lands, was extended for thirty days.

Bills Introduced—To execute the trust created by the act of Congress granting lands to this State, and incorporating the Winnebago & Lake Superior Railroad; to fix the time for holding court in Waukesha county; to amend chapter 2 of R. S. entitled, 'Of Counties and their Boundaries;" to declare certain roads in the town of Spring Brook lawful highways; to authorize the commissioners of school and university lands to remit penalties in certain cases, and to change the time for the annual distribution of the school fund income. Passed. To provide for the payment of chaplains of the Legislature of 1860; to amend chapter 13 of R. S., entitled, "Of Counties and County Officers."

Bills Passed—To amend the charter of Waukesha; to incorporate the village of Fort Atkinson.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the assessment law and spent two hours therein.

SENATE.—Remonstrances of citizens of citizens of Washington county, against the boundaries of the 3d Judicial Circuit.

Bills introduced.—To authorize the commissioners of School and University lands to remit penalties in certain cases; to change the time for the annual distribution of School funds; to provide for the payment of Chaplains of the Legislature, for 1860; to amend chap. 13 of R. S. entitled of Counties and County officers.

Bills passed.—To amend the Charter of Waukesha; to incorporate the village of Fort Atkinson. A warm debate occurred on the bill for the protection of Religious Societies, in the course of which some sharp talk took place between Senators Gill and Curtis.

Application was made to the Supreme Court of this State for a writ of Habeas Corpus in the case of S. M. Booth. The application is now under advisement, and a decision will be given in the morning. Judge Paine declines to act in the matter. Chief Justice Dixon and Judge Cole are to decide. It is thought the writ will be ordered.

Louisiana Democratic State Convention.

BATON ROUGE, March 6—9 P. M.

The Democratic State Convention met and organized to-day.

Resolutions were offered instructing the delegates at Charleston to support the nominee of that Convention, if he were a good Democrat.

A resolution was offered to sustain Mr. Davis' territorial resolutions at Charleston, and if the principles is rejected, the delegates should withdraw.

A bolting resolution was rejected, and a series of resolutions adopted expressing undiminished confidence in Buchanan's administration, embodying the principles of Davis' Territorial resolutions recommending two-thirds rule. The vote of Louisiana was to be cast as a unit; in case of the election of a Black Republican President, that Louisiana should meet her sister slaveholding States in council and adopt measures of future protection. The delegates are untrammeled by instructions, but Slidell is recommended for the Presidency. The Convention pledges the Democracy of the State to support the nominee of the Charleston Convention. E Lagree and Richard Taylor were appointed delegates at large, and the Convention then adjourned.

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, March 6.

The President to-day replied to the Senate's resolution, calling for information with reference to the present condition of affairs on the Rio Grande.

Among the documents in, is a letter from Governor Houston, dated Austin, February 15, adressed to the Secretary of War, in which he says that he deplores the situation of Texas. Her empty treasury, her unexampled Indian troubles for the last ten years, and the forays of Mexico on her Southern Boundary, and asks, in the name of humanity, if the Federal arm shall not speedily be raised effectually on behalf of her suffering frontier. Should this not be done, he says he shall, in a short time, be compelled to the indefeasible right of self-defence to protect the Border, not only to defeat the enemy, but to prevent the recurrence of similar disorders on the frontier.

Texas can and will, if applied to, in thirty days be able to maintain ten thousand men who are embarrassed, as her finances are, to make reclaimations on Mexico for all her wrongs. Can she hope for aid from the Federal Government? She will, in addition to her manifest forbearance, venture yet to defer for the action of the Federal Government.

Steamer Blown Up.

EASTON, Pa., March 6—9 P. M.

The new steamer built here exploded her boiler at noon to-day, when about starting on her first trip. She is a complete wreck. A number of persons were killed; only one body has been recovered. The names of the victims are not yet ascertained.

LATER.

Killed.—Samuel Yates, of Easton, Edward McIntyre (colored) Easton; Stewart Beatty, and Arthur Kestler, of Easton.

Wounded.—Eugene Troxell, of Easton, slightly; Joseph Losey, Washington, N. J., slightly; Wm. Parks, Easton, arm broken; A Medler, Richard Williams, and Robert Burnell, of Easton, slightly; P. Bercaw, Easton, leg broken; John Smith, of Belvidere, will hardly recover.

The scene on shore after the explosion is impossible to describe. Women who were fearful relations were on board ran about almost distracted, questioning every one in regard to the dreadful affair.

The Shoemakers' Strike—Capture of a Slaver.

BOSTON, March 6—9 P. M.

The shoemakers' strike is rapidly extending to all the principal manufacturing towns in the State. The latest demonstrations are at Newburyport, North Bridgewater, Dutton and Salem. The strikers are orderly and peaceable.

The bark Salem, from St Helena, 24th, reports the arrival there of the British steamer Tretun with a Spanish slaver with 600 negroes on board.

Chicago Municipal Election—Republican Triumph.

CHICAGO, March 6—9 P. M.

The Municipal Election passed without any disturbance of consequence. The vote polled was large; will probably reach eighteen thousand. Returns received indicate the election of the entire Republican ticket by from four to seven hundred majority.

RICHMOND, Va., March 6—9 P. M.

The Senate to-day rejected the majority report favoring a Southern Conference, and agreed to the minority report adverse to the Conference. The House has not yet acted upon it.

NEW YORK, March 6—9 P. M.

The steamer Isaac Newton left to-night for Albany, the first boat of the season.

The Hungarian.

MONTREAL, March 3.

The following was received by the Hungarian's agent here last evening:

BARRINGTON, March 1.

To Edmunston, Allen & Co:—I have returned from Baccaro light-house. I went over twelve miles of the coast. No more bodies have been found. Three trunks have been found, one belonging to Margaret Robertson, Montreal; one to Robert Martin, Toronto; and one to W. R. Crocker, Norwich, Ct.

I found a quantity of goods at Baccaro and Pt. Latour, but not a package whole. I also found one boat undamaged. From the appearance of the goods I don't think it is advisable to keep the schooner longer.—Lloyd's agent advises the goods to be sold here, they being so badly damaged.

The goods are spread over a space of about seventy miles, and being in so many hands, there will be great difficulty in collecting. The surveyors have not yet given in their report. (Signed) A. CRAWFORD.

The following is a list of the passengers booked per the Hungarian, at the agency of Grand Trunk railroad in England:

Mr. Hyatt, of Sherbrook, one adult, 1st class; Mr. Childs, of Bowmanville, two adults and infant, 2d class; Mr. Evans, of Montreal, two adults, 1st class.

Mr. Cameron of Montreal, one adult, 1st class; Mr. Stewart, of Montreal, one adult, 1st class; Mr. Butler, of Montreal, two adults, 1st class; Mr. Wilson, of Toronto, one adult, 1st class; Mr. Richardson, of Toronto, two adults, 1st class; Mr. Morris, of Toronto, one adult, 1st class; Mr. Mastin, of Toronto, one adult, 2d class.

Mr. Shang, of Toronto, one adult, 2d class; Mr. Woods, of Cornwall, one adult, 1st class; Mr. Bartlett, of Quebec, one adult 2d class; — Sarnicurgus, of Niagara Falls, two adults, 2d class; Mr. Tagg, of Milwaukee, one adult, 2d class.

OT THURSDAY of last week, a descent was made on a gang of thieves in Eau Claire City. A number of stolen articles were found stored in a building occupied by one of the parties, consisting of bags, shingles, nails, &c., &c. They were brought before Justice Mappa for examination, and were committed to jail to await the action of the next Circuit Court.—Eau Claire Free Press, 1st.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATION.

FOR CHIEF JUSTICE OF THE SUPREME COURT,

A. SCOTT SLOAN.

"Read and Circulate."

The N. Y. Tribune closes an earnest and eloquent notice of Governor SEWARD's great speech with the following note-worthy suggestion:

> We say, then, to our fellow Republicans, if you mean to triumph at the close of this year, help to put this speech into every house and inhabited cabin in the Free States. Could it be so circulated in the doubtful States, we should regard most of them as doubtful no longer. Thousands who blindly execrate Gov. Seward will yet read his speeches, knowing that they are able and thorough, and that they never blink the great question at issue. There should be at least one million copies of this speech in the hands of so many voters within the next month; who will help put that number in circulation?—or rather, what Republican will not? We shall have issued 250,000 copies of it before this day is ended, and at least 25,000 more to-morrow; but what is that aggregate compared with the urgent requirement? There should be one hundred thousand circulated forthwith in New Jersey, with half a million in Pennsylvania, and an equal number in Indiana and Illinois. Republicans of every State, but especially those who regard Gov. Seward as our proper standard-bearer, in the impending Presidential struggle! Will each of you elect himself a committee of one, to take care that this speech be put forthwith into the hands of every voter who will read it?

We commend the suggestion to the favorable consideration of the Republicans of Wisconsin. No better electioneering document can be placed in the hands of Voters than the speech of Gov. SEWARD. Our Republican County and Town Committees should take prompt measures to secure a sufficient number of copies to supply every Elector in their respective districts.

Gerrit Smith Sueing for Libel.

Suits have been commenced by GERRIT SMITH against WATTS SHERMAN, ROYAL PHELPS and S. L. M. BARLOW, of New York city, and members of the "New York Democratic Vigilant Association," for a libel contained in the notorious address issued by them last fall, in the vain hope of preventing a Republican triumph in the Empire State. In each case the damages are laid at $50,000, and it is certainly to be hoped that the gentlemen named will be made to pay smartly for the infamous lies about the Republican party and prominent Republican leaders, which they published to the world, over their signatures, in October. The following is the letter addressed by the son-in-law of Mr. SMITH to each of his libellers:

> PETERBORO, February 13, 1860.
> WATTS SHERMAN, Esq.—Sir: My father-in-law, Mr. Gerrit Smith, has at length so far waked up from the eclipse of his intellect, as to be able to read and hear reading. He has just now seen for the first time the "Manifesto of the New York Democratic Vigilant Association," published last October, in which you connect his name with a certain "Central Association" of bloody and horrible purposes.
> As Mr. Smith belongs to no society, has always opposed secret societies, had never before heard of this "Central Association," and condemns all shedding of human blood, save by Government, he necessarily feels himself to be deeply wronged by you and your associates. He holds you and them responsible for calling in effect upon the people both of the North and South to detest and abhor him.
> Mr. Smith wishes to know without any delay whether you and your associates will persist in your libel, or make the unqualified and ample retraction which the case calls for.
> Yours, respectfully,
> CHAS. D. MILLER.

A correspondence follows between the parties, in the course of which Mr. MILLER, speaking for Mr. SMITH, thus defines the political status of the latter:

> Mr. Smith confesses that he has no sympathy with the Republican party. He will not greatly deplore the advantages you may gain over it. But he must protest against your gaining them at his expense. Mr. Smith is an Abolitionist, and not, as you would have it believed, a Republican. The odium of his principles belongs all to himself; and it is not right that the Republican party should suffer at all from it. But although Mr. Smith is an Abolitionist, he has friends and relatives both at the North and South. Moreover, he thinks quite as highly of Southern, as of Northern character. I add, that although he has purchased the freedom of many slaves, and not a few of them within two or three hours drive of Harper's Ferry, and that although he is a very willing contributor to "Underground Railroads," he would nevertheless not have any slave seek his freedom at the expense of killing his master. He has always said that he would rather remain a slave for life than get his liberty by bloodshed.

Warlike.

> We learn that our gallant cotemporary, Col. King, has issued orders to the several military companies of this city, to hold themselves in readiness to obey the orders of the Commander-in-Chief, A. W. Randall, Esq., and not to come out on the requisition of the U. S. authorities in any event, contingency or emergency of any name, nature or description whatsoever.—News of yesterday.

Our credulous neighbor has been victimized by some of the wags about town, who amuse themselves, just now, in "selling" Marshal LEWIS and his Deputies, Col. FRANKFURTH and other distinguished Democratic leaders, by all sorts of "rescue" stories. "Col. KING" has issued no orders of any sort to the military companies of this city, in regard to the apprehended contingency. The News is charitably apprehensive that "Gov. RANDALL and Col. KING will make great asses of themselves on rather slight provocation." The editor of the News runs no such risk. He is a ready-made ass.

Madison Correspondence.

> MADISON, March 5.
> Soon after the Assembly opened its session this morning, Mr. Bolton entered, in company with the Hon Joshua R. Giddings, the great negro-worshipper, from Ohio, who had lectured here the previous evening; and begged the privilege of conducting his friend Giddings to the Speaker's stand. No objection being made Mr. Bolton took the old negroist by the hand and led him up the aisle just as a Swiss organist leads his monkey.
> On arriving at the Speaker's desk, Speaker Lyon introduced the old man to the Assembly, amidst the deafening cheers of his negro followers.—"Sioux" in the News.

These choice bits of blackguardism constitute the main staple of the "Sioux" letters. They may "tickle the ears of the groundlings," and gratify the taste of "pot-house politicians," but it is to be hoped that they disgust every decent man in the Democratic party.

ENCOURAGEMENT TO HOME INDUSTRY.—Several of the Southern States have lately adopted measures for the encouragement of home manufactures. Texas has under consideration a bill to encourage the establishment of home manufactories within its limits. It is couched in the following terms:

> Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas: That from and after the passage of this act, whenever any person or persons shall commence the construction of any manufacturing establishments, for the manufacture of silk, cotton or woolen cloths, for the purpose of manufacturing articles of use or ornament of iron, copper or silver, from the native ores or native metals, he or they shall be entitled to receive from the State of Texas ten sections of land of 640 acres each, for every $10,000 invested in said manufacturing establishment or establishments, upon the terms and conditions hereinafter prescribed.

The Legislature of Louisiana has a bill before it for the same purpose, which, among other things, appropriates six dollars per ton for all vessels built within the State.

Our own Legislature has had its attention called to this important subject, and will, we trust, adopt some practical measure for the establishment of home manufactures and the encouragement of home industry. It is the "one thing needful" to build up our city and State. Manufactures, well established on a sound basis within our borders, and started under right auspices, could not fail of success.

> SENATOR DOUGLAS' SPEECH.—We shall publish to-morrow Senator Douglas' speech, in reply to Senator Seward. It is one of Mr. Douglas' most effective speeches, and exposes in a clear and masterly style the fallacies of Seward.—News of yesterday.

The readers of the News must take this upon trust, as that paper very prudently refrains from publishing "the fallacies of SEWARD." Mr. DOUGLAS did not and could not answer a single point in the argument of Senator SEWARD, and therefore sought refuge in perversion of the speech and insinuations against its author.

REPUBLICANISM IN WESTERN NEW YORK.—Never before have the Republicans elected so many supervisors in New York as at the late town meetings. Chautauque county, which elects nineteen and probably twenty Supervisors, out of twenty-five, is a specimen of the Republican tornado which is sweeping over that State. In the town of Panama the Republicans had every vote! The whole number was 000, and the Republican majority was 000! In Onandaga county the Republicans carried 17 out of 18 towns.

AN IRISHMAN, by the name of Michael Finneran, was kicked by an ox, directly in front of Grant's store, last week, by which internal injuries were received, so that he died in two or three days.—Wis. Pinery, 2d.

Republicanism and Democracy.

The N. Y. Courier & Enquirer, thus briefly and intelligently introduces the principles and positions of the two great parties at issue, and elucidates the difference between them. The Republicans have on their banner:—

The Constitution, and the Constitutional rights of all the States.

The Principles of WASHINGTON, MADISON, and JEFFERSON, as illustrated in their Administration of the General Government; and in the ordinance of 1787.

Hostility to the African Slave Trade.

Opposition to Slavery extension.

SLAVERY, a local and not a National Institution.

The self-styled Democracy, have on the contrary, emblazoned on their banner:—

Repudiation of the Principles of WASHINGTON, MADISON, and JEFFERSON, as illustrated in 1787, and in their Administration of the General Government.

The Dissolution of the Union, if a majority of the People should remove the Democracy from power.

SLAVERY, National, and not local; and carried by the Constitution into the Free Territories of the Union.

The re-opening of the African Slave Trade.

FROM MADISON.

Dogs, Dogs, Dogs, Dogs.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

MADISON, March 5, 1860.

> The rogues slighted me into the water with as little remorse as they would have drowned a bitch's blind puppies, fifteen i' the litter.—SHAKESPEARE.

DEAR SENTINEL:—To-day was dog's day. Senator TAYLOR, of Dane County, has an irrepressible hatred of the canine race. Nearly every man has a dogma, and Senator TAYLOR's dogma is, to be against dog-mas and pa's too. His dogma goes to the general putting down and curtailing of every other man's dogma. I cannot forbear quoting extensively from the learned Senator's remarks.

He said other States have seen the necessity of dog laws. States that were formerly largely engaged in wool-growing have been gradually decreasing in this branch of industry. He had a letter from the Secretary of the State Agricultural Society of Massachusetts in which he said that the growing of sheep had become almost obsolete, owing to the depredations. He had no doubt that the passage of their dog-law in 1858 would add fully one million of dollars to the wealth of that State in 1860. Maine has been decreasing ever since 1840, until they are this winter enacting a dog-law similar to the Massachusetts law. The same has been the experience of Ohio. In 1858 Ohio produced 10,196,000 lbs of wool—in 1859 but a little over 5,000,000 lbs, and it has been shown that 97,000 sheep had been destroyed in one year by dogs, worth $146,780. In 1854 she reached her maximum and had some $8,000,000 worth of sheep—in 1859 estimated at $4,700,000, the main decrease owing to the destruction of dogs.

Ohio is this Winter passing a dog law, one far more stringent than the one now before the committee. They found as fashionable dogs increased, valuable dogs decreased. In 1850 the United States imported 32,000,000 pounds of wool. The money paid for this should have been kept at home. But the growth of wool is not the only advantage to be gained by killing dogs. It has been stated that some fourteen or fifteen persons had during the past year died of that most terrible disease—hydrophobia. One human life is worth more than all the dogs in the State. It will also open new avenues to wealth to the farmer. The wheat crop is uncertain, and we must encourage manufactures, and thus give employment to thousands who otherwise would be idle. He considered this bill as an important measure, and he hoped Senators would meet this question fairly and discuss it honestly—meet it by argument, not by ridicule, and pass it on its merits.

On Saturday, Senator GILL spoke against the bill. He was in favor of dogs generally, and especially of Wisconsin dogs. They were the poor man's comforts. He couldn't keep house without them. Why couldn't we have a law against cats. I suppose the learned Senator thought if cats didn't destroy sheep, they did destroy sleep, and otherwise interfered with vested rights.—The Senator was in earnest in his opposition, and made a powerful display.

Senator EGAN was in favor of the measure, and supported it manfully.

I cannot see the sense or wit of opposing such a bill as this. It is not half stringent enough. There are hundreds of dogs in this State to-day, that are inoculated with virus, and ready to run mad at any instant. Hundreds of children were kept out of School in Milwaukee, and other cities, last year, because their parents were afraid they would be bitten; and in several instances they were bitten, and have died since, probably.

If Senators are not aware of these facts, they are too ignorant of current events to hold positions of trust and honor; and if they are not ignorant of them, there is no excuse for them. 'Tis a sweet sight to see men grow factious, and oppose such a bill, when mad dogs, with hot poisonous breath, fiery eyes, and glistening teeth dripping with virus, are tearing mouths' full of flesh from the faces and bodies of school children, and men and women, and biting cattle, sheep and horses all over the State. FIFTEEN HUMAN BEINGS died a most horrible death last year, from the bites of these domestic curses.

Still, the remarks are funny. Yes, positively funny, about dogs! The honorable gentlemen ought to have tin kettles tied to their coat-tails, and be broom-sticked thro' the State by old women, as a laughing stock and general disgrace. A man may put prussic acid on any beefsteak, or arsenic in the bread, or any other funny thing of that kind, but I most decidedly object to his being so facetious as to turn tons of the deadliest poison loose in every county of the State, with no cover on the poison but the skins of a hundred thousand mad, unmuzzled dogs.

If a poor man is so poor that he must have his pup protected, though it endanger the lives of a whole community, he had better "go West." In this country of cheap newspapers and books, there is something more intellectual than propagating fleas, or patting curs on the head. It might add to the general intelligence, if the food and time wasted on these tame wolves were spent for newspapers. I hope all who oppose this bill will be treed by mad dogs some rainy night, and kept there till they know something.

Yours, INWARIABLE.

THE DEMOCRATS INSIST UPON HAVING SLAVERY IN KANSAS.—We have another exemplification of the determination of the Democratic party, so far as is within its power, to introduce Slavery into the Territories. For the second time, Gov. Medary, of Kansas, has defeated the action of the people of that Territory in their efforts to prohibit Slavery within their midst. Will the American people note this? Here is a community that does not want Slavery, and have gone regularly about abolishing it through their Territorial Legislature. There is no danger that this is a mere spasmodic opinion, for they have incorporated the same idea into a Constitution which has been passed upon favorably by five-sixths of the legal voters of the Territory. And yet the Democratic party refuses to permit them to abolish Slavery in their own midst, although it was to this very people they made the pledge that they should "be left perfectly free to form and regulate their own domestic institutions in their own way." Slavery is now substantially forced upon them by the Democratic party. Slavery is declared by a Democratic Governor to be above the reach of the people!—Detroit Tribune.

AN AUSTRIAN GOVERNOR TAKES A SHREWD WAY TO ABOLISH CRINOLINE.—The Austrian commander at Mantua, lately published a proclamation, in which he took occasion to recommend the use of crinoline. The next Sunday nearly all the Italian ladies went to church without their crinoline, to show their dislike of the Austrian rule. Let it not be said hereafter that the science of government is not understood by the Austrians.

Mr. Seward's Speech.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune says:

"The audience assembled to hear Governor Seward's speech filled every available spot in the Senate galleries, and overflowed into all the adjacent lobbies and passages, crowding them with throngs eager to follow the argument of the Senator, or even to catch an occasional sentence or word; while, throughout its delivery, a constant stream of life flowed up and down the gorgeous staircases of the Chamber, vainly beating against the compact masses who had been so fortunate as to get early possession of the ground; and, thence recoiling and deflecting, the disappointed current would glide into eddies around the hall, and linger in groups beyond ear-shot of the speaker, unwilling to abandon all hope of ultimately catching a glimpse of the scene transpiring below.

It was on the floor itself that the most interesting spectacle was presented. Every Senator seemed to be in his seat. Hunter, Davis, Toombs, Mason, Hammond, Slidell, Clingman, Benjamin and Brown, paid the very closest attention to the speaker. Crittenden listened to every word. Douglas affected to be self-possessed; but his nervousness of mien gave token that the truths now uttered awakened unpleasant memories of the Lecompton contest, when he, Seward, and Crittenden, the famous Triumvirate, led the allies in the attack upon a corrupt and despotic Administration.

The Members of the House streamed over to the north wing of the Capitol, almost in a body, leaving Mr. Reagan, of Texas, to discourse to empty benches, while Seward held his levee in the Senate.

The auditory he drew around him to-day might have temporarily disturbed the equanimity of a more iron-nerved man than he. When he rose, and the hum of voices, and the rustle incident to a large crowd, were hushed to repose, and all eyes bent upon him, the slight embarrassment perceptible in his voice and mien, was doubtless due to the internal agitation induced by the burden of an undelivered speech—which every orator so well understands—rather than to anything like ordinary fear. But this tremor of tone and limb soon disappeared, and he spoke with as much self-possession as he would in conversing with a friend in his drawing-room, or as he did in conference with Lord Palmerston in Piccadilly, and Louis Napoleon at Compiegne.

And now was exhibited the magic spell, so clearly seen but so difficult to explain, which Gov. Seward's speeches usually throw around his auditors. In manner, voice and gesture, he has none of the electric splendor of Clay, nor the marvelous majesty of Webster. His voice is husky, his gestures angular, his postures stiff and immovable, his whole manner dry and didactic, but still, to-day as of yore, he had the unbroken attention for nearly two hours of an audience, half of whom stood or sat in uncomfortable positions, and composed of all the variegated classes that congregate in this cosmopolitan capital, from the loftiest statesmanship and scholarship, intent only upon the subject-matter presented, and the style in which it was clothed, down to the most fashionable beaux and belles, seemingly desirous only of displaying exquisite moustaches and gorgeous bonnets and dresses.

The Nominee for Chief Justice, and the Action of the State Convention.

The Janesville Gazette, in an article upon the action of the Republican State Convention, says:

"The nomination of Mr. Sloan was received by the Convention with evident signs of satisfaction, and we have not the slightest doubt that the people will ratify it. One of the highest qualifications for a Judge is conceded to him by all parties—he is an honest man. Another—he is a fair man, say all his neighbors and acquaintances. Fortunately he has been tried as to his ability—having occupied the bench of the Third Judicial Circuit, with the entire approbation of the people and the bar. A year ago, with a political majority of 2,500 against him in that Circuit, he came within a few votes of an election against a popular Democratic candidate. Upon occasions he has dispensed justice in the Circuit Court of this county, and always to the satisfaction of the public. A. SCOTT SLOAN, is, therefore, just such a man as Rock would desire to fill the place of the lamented Whiton, and she will do her part in placing him there.

"Not only did the action of the Convention for Judge, but the unanimity of the people's delegates on the question of the Presidency, determines beyond all doubt that Wm. H. Seward is the favorite of Wisconsin Republicans. Not a voice was raised against the resolution declaring him the preference of the State. Wisconsin is a unit on that question."

SLAVERY FINALLY ABOLISHED IN KANSAS.—We stop the press to announce the joyful tidings that the bill prohibiting Slavery in Kansas has just passed both branches of the Legislative Assembly, by the requisite two-thirds majority over the Governor's veto, and is now the law of the land! Six years ago, the Democracy abolished the time-honored ordinance of Freedom and threw wide open the gates of this beautiful Territory to Slavery. To-day, the PEOPLE, striding defiantly over the veto of a Democratic Federal Governor, and the votes of a majority of that party, in both branches of the Legislative Assembly, have re-established the old ordinance of Liberty in these words: Slavery, or involuntary servitude, except for the punishment of crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, is and shall be forever prohibited in this Territory. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

The victory is at last won. Now let us see whether the Democracy in Congress will dare to pass a slave code.—Lawrence (Kansas) Republican.

AN EXCITED CHRISTIAN.—The editor of the Christian Banner, a paper of the Baptist persuasion, published at Fredericksburg, Va., has the following mild remarks on the late vote of Hon. HENRY WINTER DAVIS for Mr. PENNINGTON as Speaker:

"There is no peaceful locality for a traitor. Execrated by heaven, scorned by earth, hissed by hell's deepest damned, with legions of loathing vipers forever gnawing at the fountain of vitality, he is sent adrift through immeasurable space, continually lashed with a thousand scorpion thongs, while his awful wailings rend the air, 'My punishment is greater than I can bear.'"

THE SENTINEL.

THE RAINY DAY.

The day is cold, and dark, and dreary!
It rains, and the wind is never weary:
The vine still clings to the mouldering wall,
But at every gust the dead leaves fall,
And the day is dark and dreary.

My life is cold, and dark, and dreary!
It rains, and the wind is never weary:
My thoughts still cling to the mouldering Past,
But the hopes of youth fall thick in the blast,
And the days are dark and dreary.

Be still, sad heart! and cease repining;
Behind the cloud is the sun still shining,
Thy fate is the common fate of all—
Into each life some rain must fall—
Some days must be dark and dreary.

[Written expressly for the Daily Sentinel.]

TWENTY STEPS TO ONE WOMAN'S HEART.

The moment Ed. glanced at him he drew the bed-drapery aside so as to display his figure, and was recognized as Sergeant B., of the detectives.

"They're coming," he said in a scarcely audible tone.

"How did they get in?" asked Ed.

"Through the grating in the coal vault. Lie still!—feign sleep and leave it to us. There are four of us; don't use your pistols until I do!"

Ed. was sufficiently awake to know that under the circumstances it was decidedly best to follow his advice. Indeed, he had that confidence in the man, that had he ordered him to walk out in the hall, he would have complied—with the assurance that he had made ample provision for the emergency.

As soon as he had delivered this pithy advice, he drew back and was completely hid by the curtains. Ed. brought the bedclothes up about his head, leaving his right arm unembarrassed, and listened.

The noise at the door continued. The pressure was renewed at intervals, and accompanied with the sound of voices.

At last there was a cracking of wood, and it came open. The next moment three men entered the room, and Clinton recognized the faces and figures of his former antagonists on the river. The man in advance held his lantern up and took a survey of the room. In his left hand he held a heavy pistol, which, after satisfying himself of his comparative security, he thrust in a side pocket, and placing the lantern on the table by the side of Ed.'s candle, and carefully displacing the bed-clothes, scrutinized the countenance of the apparent sleeper. He shortly returned to his companions, and pulling out one of the chests, they broke open the lid, revealing a mass of papers and parchments. Ed. saw all this—their backs were toward him. He saw them take the contents of the chest carefully out and place them in a sack, which they had brought for the purpose. Their conversation was carried on in a low tone, but at last one of the number spoke loud enough to be distinctly understood—

"I guess it will start old Stephenson when he finds we have bagged his game!"

"No glib," said one of them, and silence ensuing, they worked together, pushing and crowding the papers down in the sack.

The work was well nigh accomplished when there was a knock at the door loud and startling. The three men looked up in amazement, first at each other's countenances and then in the direction of the sound. The door stood ajar, and that some person stood the other side of it seemed incredible. Finally one of them, the herculean villain before noticed, sprang to his feet and with a pistol in his hand advanced to the door. As his body passed the opening a blow descended from some unseen quarter—the pistol was knocked from his hand; the blue coat of an officer appeared a moment in the opening, and then the burglar was grasped by the throat and pushed backward into the room. Simultaneously with this, the other officers had advanced from their hiding places and before the villains were hardly aware of it they were prisoners. Clinton sprang from the bed but his services were not required, the "billy's" had performed the work and two of the desperadoes were already stunned. Seargant B., going to a window thrust his elbow unceremoniously through a light and blew a shrill whistle. Shortly after a reinforcement arrived and the three worthies were ironed and marched off to the lock-up.

"Now," said the detective to Clinton, "I owe you an explanation. I have no idea of allowing you to promulgate a very creditable ghost story; so let me state that we have been in the house all the evening—were here before you came—and in our endeavors to keep you from making your light too conspicuous, led you to hunt for ghosts up and down stairs as you did. I was not aware that Greenway intended to send you here."

"Then you are acquainted with Greenway?"

"Of course."

"Then tell me, pray, what this whole affair is leading to. I am in the fog completely."

"It's not my practice to tell everything I know, but as you have had several of your fingers in this pie before, and there is every probability of its becoming public matter soon, I don't know but what I might as well gratify you. You remember the scrape on the river—you need not look surprised, Greenway told me all about it—these men, as you undoubtedly have discovered, are the same fellows. We have been on their trail some time, but owing to their being game, they have pretty generally kept us at fault. The other day we got hold of certain papers implicating the whole gang and a good many besides, and it occurred to me that by storing the documents here, and letting them get wind of it, we might spring a trap on them. Well, it has worked to perfection. The whole three of them will take a trip to Sing Sing shortly, or I'm mistaken."

STEP SEVEN.

"There is little more to tell of this story," Chartsey said, holding the last page of the manuscript before him. "A terrible revelation was made a few days after these events; and Linton and Greenway, in company with their friend Sergeant B., demanded admission at the house of Miss Ontario Tanglegrass. They rung and knocked, but no response was made; and they might have remained there until this time, ring and knocking, had not the officer pushed in the basement door and turned the bolts for his friends.

"Need it be told how Jerry found Miss Stephenson and had her removed to her father's house, but how that the Tanglegrasses were non est inventus.

"About two months after this, Miss Stephenson beame Mrs. Linton and is now considered, by competent judges, as one of the loveliest creatures on the island.

"Not long after this the Alpine Club dissolved. Jerry being a married man could not attend to it. Ed. Clinton went off into the Territories with a party of topographical engineers. Greenway went South, and Stansbury, I believe, went to farming.—Christmas still holds out at his office on the Third Avenue. Just before the Club broke up, the members pledged themselves solemnly to meet at some future time at the appointment of two members, and have a review.

"That has never taken place, and I now propose, Lem, that we invite the whole Club, wives and families to Lazylake, it will be a glorious realization of romance, and we shall have a week of high life. What say you?"

"I am agreeable, supposing it possible."

"Leave the possibility to me; write your invitations to-morrow, and while they are reaching their destination, I will while the time away with a little story written by a young lady."

BININGER'S OLD LONDON DOCK GIN

A. M. BININGER & CO.,
(ESTABLISHED 1778.)
SOLE IMPORTERS,
No. 338 Broad Street, New York.

THIS DELICIOUS TONIC, ESPECIALLY for the use of the Medical Profession and the Family,
Possesses those INTRINSIC medicinal properties, (Tonic and Diuretic) which belong to an OLD AND PURE GIN.

The business of manufacturing spurious Gins, and offering them as beverages, under the titles, "Aromatic," "Cordial," "Medicated," &c., has become so common that the public are justly suspicious of nearly everything that is offered under similar forms, and the trade has thus been brought into disrepute. It has remained for our house (established in 1778) to supply the pressing popular need, and to inaugurate a new era in the history of the Trade. We trust that our established reputation—founded upon eighty years of experience—abundantly vindicates our claim to public confidence.

N. B.

A comparison of "Bininger's Old London Dock Gin" with others bearing similar names, will establish its superiority, and make other Caution unnecessary.

THE SENTINEL.

COMMERCIAL.

TUESDAY P. M., March 6th, 1860.

Receipts by Railroad for the 24 hours ending noon to-day include:

Flour, bbls	722
Wheat, bus	3,145
Barley, bus	316
Oats, bus	450
Corn, bus	45
Rye, bus	7
Hides, No.	46
Butter, firkins	[illegible]

There was rather a dull feeling in the wheat market at the opening to-day, owing doubtless to the fact that the tone of the foreign news turned out less favorably than the despatches yesterday indicated, but sellers would not accede to any offers below yesterday's figures. The New York report strengthened the market considerably, and on 'Change No. 2 was held at $1,03 in store, and No. 1 at $1,04. Of the latter about 1,000 bushels sold on the track at this price, and 10,000 bus for delivery in store April 1st, at $1,06. Considerable quantities of No. 2 were offered at $1,02 in store, but no buyers were found willing to go outside of $1,02. Club and Extra sold at $1,06 and $1,05, which is about the same as paid yesterday except in one or two cases for very choice lots.

Nothing done in flour.

Coarse grains unchanged. Oats sold pretty freely at 33c delivered, and Barley at 64@68c for ordinary to choice No. 1.

NEW YORK COMMERCIAL MATTERS—THE STOCK OF BREADSTUFFS—EXPORTS, &c.—A few days since we referred to a statement in the New York Tribune of the stock of wheat in store at New York, questioning its accuracy upon the authority of a gentleman well acquainted with the movements of breadstuffs in that city. Through the kindness of the same person, who is a member of our Chamber of Commerce, we are permitted to make the following extracts from a letter of EDWARD HILL, Produce Broker, No. 119 Broad st., New York, dated March 2d, 1860, in answer to inquiries relative to the stock of wheat and flour now in store in New York. He says:

"I am of the opinion that there is not less than 700,000 to 750,000 bbls of flour." "Of wheat our stock is large, the speculative feeling was strong late in the fall and brought the article here freely.

"I amused myself this morning in asking the opinions of several interested parties and found they estimated very much as they felt. I then asked the warehousemen, and the result was 1,561,000 bushels. So that with some lots afloat we may calculate 1,500,000 to 1,600,000 bushels in all.

"This is chiefly red Chicago and Milwaukee, a little winter and a small portion of white. I look to see higher rates for the better qualities of winter, but cannot see how the spring can go much above present figures. There is, as yet, no export demand of consequence, and low prices will only start that trade, because they are not hungry."

Mr. HILL in New York is admitted to be high authority, and one of the best produce brokers in this country. We think the New York Tribune will have to revise their figures and see if they cannot make more than 1,000,000 bushels wheat now in store in New York.

We copy from Mr. HILL's semi-monthly circular the following statement of the export of breadstuffs to foreign countries from the United States since September 1st:

PORK PACKING AT CHICAGO.—The Press & Tribune furnishes a complete statement of the number of hogs packed at that place the last season, which compares with former years as follows:

1852-3	48,156	1856-7	74,000
1853-4	52,849	1857-8	99,262
1854-5	73,694	1858-9	180,000
1855-6	80,380	1859-60	161,715

The same paper estimates the stock of barrel pork in that city at 15,000.

CHICAGO WHOLESALE MARKET.—The receipts of the articles named, at Chicago yesterday, were as follows:

Flour, bbls	794
Wheat, bus	3,125
Corn, bus	5,816
Oats, bus	701
Barley, bus	779

The Press & Tribune says:

The Flour market continues fair, with an active demand by shippers, principally for Southern markets.—The offerings, however, were rather light, and sellers generally held for an advance of 10@15c, which was not accorded to by buyers. About 700 bbls changed hands at $5,00@5,12½ for good to choice spring extras, and $6,25 for choice White Winter. Wheat opened very fair, and several thousand bushels changed hands at the outside figures of Saturday; but towards the close the market was rather easier, and closed quiet—sales ranging from $1,04@1,07 for old receipts No. 2 Spring in store; and 95c for new receipts Rejected. Corn advanced ¼c under a good speculative demand, with liberal sales at 45@46c for No. 1; and 42½ for No. 2 in store. Oats ½c better, with a good inquiry for shipments to St. Louis—sales varying from 27@28½ on track. Rye firm, with sales at 50@52c. Barley firm. Seeds quiet. Nothing doing in Provisions.

CINCINNATI PROVISION AND PRODUCE MARKET.—Receipts at Cincinnati on Saturday, as published in the Gazette, include:

Barley, bus	276
Corn, bus	2,174
Flour, bbls	1,575
Lard, tbls	83
Lard, kegs	9
Oats, bus	7,041
Pork and Bacon, hhds	5
do tcs	91,570
Wheat, bus	3,030

The Gazette says:

In the general markets, on Saturday, business was very dull. Owing to the scarcity of money, people were not disposed to make new engagements, but at the same time there was no disposition to press sales of leading articles. For Bacon there were inquiries at 7½ and 9¼c for shoulders and sides, but none were to be had below 7½ and 9½. Bulk Meats were saleable at 6¼c, and 8¼c for shoulders and sides, but they were held ¼ to ½c higher. Mess Pork was held at 17,50 for good brands, with buyers at 17,25. A lot of 200 kegs lard sold at 11c; barrel done at 10¾c. There was a better feeling in flour, with sales of 1,000 bbls at 5,25@5,45 for superfine. The receipts were small, and the shipments more liberal. Whiskey was dull at 19½c. Nothing done in wheat. Buyers are holding off, but holders are not willing to make concessions. Corn advanced 1c for ear, closing at 49@50c in bulk. Shelled dull at 50@52c. Clover Seed dull at 4,50@4,55. Groceries dull and unchanged.

MARINE ITEMS.

TUESDAY, P. M.

THE WEATHER to-day has been extremely foggy and disagreeable, with a strong wind from the Southwest and a drizzly rain.

THE FIRST ARRIVAL OF LUMBER.—The schooner J. & A. Stronach arrived from Manistee, Michigan, yesterday, with a cargo of lumber—the first of the season.

THE propeller Cuyahoga cleared for Two Rivers last evening with hides and sundries. She is to bring back a large quantity of leather for the Wisconsin Leather Co., with whatever other freight she may get, and will leave here again to-morrow evening on the same route, touching at Port Washington, Sheboygan and Manitowoc.

THE STEAMER MILWAUKEE OUT OF HER DRY DOCK.—The Chicago Tribune of yesterday, says that the steamer Milwaukee, came out of the dry dock on Friday. Nothing remains to be done upon her repairs except some little tinkering with her machinery. The ice is all out of the river, and it is probable that she will soon leave for Milwaukee. She comes out good as new to take her place in the Milwaukee & Grand Haven line.

THE ONLY ARTICLE

Unrivalled in Market,

WITH IMMENSE

HOME AND EUROPEAN DEMAND.

THE REASON WHY, IS THAT BY Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy, and beautiful and if used by the young two or three times a week, it will never fall or become gray; then readers, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 3, 1858.

MESSRS O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudice which, in common with a great many persons, I had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad that I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was, but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being ocular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking.

I am, Yours Respectfully,
HENRY JENKINS.
Cor. Columbus and Carroll sts., Brooklyn.

LIVINGSTON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country.—My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, &c., S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering, was in fact BALD. I have used but two half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it.

Yours, respectfully, D. R. THOMAS, M. D.
No. 454 Vine street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: Large, medium, and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

O. J. WOOD & CO., Proprietors, 312 Broadway, New York, (in the great N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment,) and 114 Market St., St. Louis, Mo. And sold by all good Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

JUDSON'S PATENT

GOVERNOR VALVES,

FOR REGULATING THE

WARRANTED THE MOST PERFECT Governor of Steam Power in the world, and like all really great inventions, the most simple. Manufactured by Judson & Snow, at Rochester, N. Y., Selye Buildings, near R. R. Depot.

Shop Rights for sale.

CAUTION TO INFRINGERS.

Patented in the United States, Nov. 5th, 1850, Reissued, Jan. 4th, 1851. Second Patent, March 4th, 1851. Patented also in Great Britain and the Canadas, June 6th, 1851.

This improvement consists in making regulating valves to open with a rapidly increasing ratio of opening, by increasing the width of the opening made in the valve—or by accelerating the opening motion of the ordinary valves in use—or by combining increased width of opening, with accelerated valve motion. My patent Valves and Governors are so arranged as to give the resistance to the piston's motion, (or regard of the engine,) the power to open the valve just the exact amount of aperture necessary to counteract that resistance: and from the aperture, by the addition of equal amounts of resistance, notwithstanding that the action of the governor is continually decreasing in its effects.

Therefore reverse the action of valves combined with governors, as heretofore used. And as this effect can be produced by many different mechanical devices, (apparently not similar, but really identical with my improvement,) by which infringers have imposed upon the public, I therefore caution and request all persons interested, to examine carefully all alleged improvements in valves or governors, to see if the application of this truth or principle, first discovered and applied by me, is not involved in their arrangements;—and thereby prevent a fraud upon the purchaser and inventor, both of which are at present much annoyed by their piratical depredations.

Medical.

THE GREATEST

MEDICAL

DISCOVERY

OF THE AGE.

MR. KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY, HAS discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR,

FROM

THE WORST SCROFULA DOWN TO A COMMON PIMPLE.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, both thunder humor. He has now in his possession over one hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two or three bottles will cure the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the stomach.

Three or five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three or four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

ROXBURY, Mass.

DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kinds of humors, is so well established, by the unanimous voice of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skillful physicians and the most careful druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its curative powers, in relieving all, and curing most of the diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother, is cured as if by a miracle; your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful naps to calm and sweet slumbers; and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to your husband and household.

NURSING SORE MOUTH.

In the more advanced stages of

CANKER

it extends to the stomach, causing

DYSPEPSIA

which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then on the intestines and creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.

Your stomach is

RAW AND INFLAMED,

your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains, as the acrimonious fluid of the canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best day is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follows a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to

CURE;

Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back, pain of the hip-joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also that most excruciating of diseases the

PILES.

How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb, "an ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the

MEDICAL DISCOVERY

you have both the preventative and the cure, with this great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you an injury. Yours truly,

DONALD KENNEDY.

DR. CHURCHILL'S REMEDY.

WINCHESTER'S GENUINE PREPARATION OF THE

HYPOPHOSPHITES

OF LIME AND OF SODA,

(Made from the Formula of Dr. J. F. Churchill,)

FOR THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF CONSUMPTION!

THE SUCCESS OF THIS NEW REMEDY, (discovered by Dr. Churchill, of Paris,) is obtaining the most UNBOUNDED POPULARITY throughout Europe and the United States. It is a purely SCIENTIFIC PREPARATION, and acts with INVARIABLE EFFICACY in all stages of Pulmonary and Nervous Diseases.

This Remedy has not only a curative effect, but will, if used wherever there exists a suspicion of the disease, PREVENT ITS DEVELOPMENT, and thus act, as a preventive with regard to Consumption, just as vaccination does with regard to small pox.

What the Medical Profession Say.

"In no instance have I found the Remedy to fail."—Dr. Churchill.

"I have used your preparation of the Hypophosphites with the most happy effect."—C. Fisher, M. D., Lyndon, Ill.

"I have been astonished in witnessing the good effects of the Hypophosphites. The statements in your pamphlet are not at all exaggerated. My patient was just entering the last stage of tubercular consumption."—S. Rowe, M. D., Hoosic Falls, N. Y.

"They exert an important remedial influence over the tubercular disease by improving the nervous strength and invigorating the nutritive functions."—Dr. W. E. Rust, Morristown, N. J.

"I have derived more satisfaction from the use of your Hypophosphites than from all other forms of medication combined."—Dr. Geo. W. Morris, Columbus, O.

"If, on the earliest appearance of the symptoms, the patient takes daily about ten grains of the Hypophosphites, he will speedily find himself in the enjoyment of such health as he, perhaps, had never known in his life before."

"Winchester's Hypophosphites are unexceptional in their preparation."—Am. Druggists' Circular.

"Mr. Winchester is worthy of all confidence, and devotes himself enthusiastically to these preparations in all their variety of combination. Prepared strictly by Dr. Churchill's method."—D. Meredith Reese, M. D., New York.

"LOWELL, O., July 5, 1859.—I have had several cases given up by attending physicians who are now exempt from all the symptoms of pulmonary disease.—I have used the Remedy in my own case, with decided success. It was regarded as hopeless by physicians and friends, and even by myself, under the 'old treatment.' I am now able to ride, in attending the sick, as many miles, perhaps, in a day, as any other physician in the country."—W. F. Clark, M. D.

"The Hypophosphites are most appropriate Remedies in a large class of affections resulting from loss of nervous force."—Boston Medical and Surgical Journal.

Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption,

IS NOW READY.

The Hypophosphites may be used with incurable success in Chronic Bronchitis, Asthma, Dyspepsia, and in all "Nervous" Disorders.

Make no Delay!

Consumptives, in any stage of the disease, should resort immediately to the use of the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. "Winchester's Genuine Preparation" (in simple syrup), in extra large bottles, is "chemically pure"; is the combination proposed by Dr. Churchill "for general use"; and is prepared according to his original Formula.

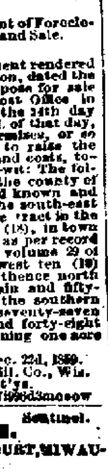
AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.



THROUGH A TRIAL OF many years and through every nation of civilized men, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has been found to afford more relief and to cure more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparently settled consumption have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers who were deemed beyond the reach of human aid have been restored to their friends and usefulness, to sound health and the enjoyments of life, by this all-powerful antidote to diseases of the lungs and throat.—The dry, hacking cough, the glassy eye, and the pale, thin features of him who was lately lusty and strong, whisper to all but him CONSUMPTION. He tries every thing; but the disease is gnawing at his vitals, and shows its fatal symptoms more and more over all his frame. He is taking the CHERRY PECTORAL now; it has stopped his cough and made his breathing easy; his sleep is sound at night; his appetite returns, and with it his strength. The dart which pierced his side is broken. Scarcely any neighborhood can be found which has not some living trophy like this to shadow forth the virtues which have won for the CHERRY PECTORAL an imperishable renown. But its usefulness does not end here. Nay, it accomplishes more by prevention than cure. The countless colds and coughs which it cures are the seed which would have ripened into a dreadful harvest of incurable diseases. Influenza, Croup, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Pleurisy, Whooping Cough, and all irritations of the throat and lungs are easily cured by the CHERRY PECTORAL if taken in season. Every family should have it by them, and they will find it an invaluable protection from the insidious prowler which carries off the parent sheep from many a flock, the darling lamb from many a home.

Authenticated evidence of these facts, with directions for the treatment of each complaint, may be found in Ayer's American Almanac, of which we publish three millions, and scatter them broadcast over the earth, in order that the sick everywhere may have before them the information it contains.—Druggists and dealers in medicine generally have them for distribution gratis, and also for sale these remedies, prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

ARE YOU SICK?

Then you can't be cured too soon. Don't delay until your complaint is incurable, and then mourn when it is too late. Four-fifths of all the diseases which people the church yards, might be cured by Ayer's Cathartic Pills, if taken in season. Don't go dragging through the Spring, faint, sleepy and listless, because your blood is loaded with bile. Don't wear the Headache, Heartburn, and their kindred disorders, because the stomach is foul. Don't parade yourself around the world, covered with Pimples, Blotches, Ulcers, Sores, and all or any of the unclean diseases of the skin, because your system wants cleansing. Don't scowl yourself about, lean, haggard, all caved in, because your Stomach and Bowels need strengthening into healthy action.—Ayer's Pills set these things right as surely as water quenches fire. They purify the body and blood, and restore their functions into healthy activity which you can feel as quickly as they are taken.—They are the one great medical wonder of the age, recognized by all who know their virtues, and many thousands know them. Take the Cherry Pectoral for a cough, and the Pills for all derangements requiring a purgative medicine.

Prepared by JAMES C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass., and sold by JOHN RICE, Milwaukee, J. H. REED & CO., Chicago, and all Dealers in Medicine everywhere.
